

KAOKOLAND WILDERNESS ADVENTURE TOURS

Map of pre-independence Namibia showing ethnic Bantustans/homelands, with Kaokoland as the homeland of the Himba people in the north-west.

Zoomed-in ⇒
Kaokoland map showing main landmarks of Opuwo - the only town, Sesfontein, Puros, Orupembe, Van Zyl Pass, Marienfluss valley, Red Drum, and the Skeleton Coast National Park boundary.

This offer is covered by the STO Garant guarantee. You can find the conditions for this guarantee scheme on STO Garant's website (www.sto-garant.nl/en/downloads).

Tour 1: (8 days, Guided Self-Drive)

Itinerary: Starts at Windhoek to Kaokoland, and ends at Windhoek

Day 1: Windhoek to Otjiwarongo to Opuwo. Click below to read about Opuwo and Himbas:

<https://namibiatourism.com.na/blog/opuwo-and-the-himbas-a-metaphor-for-balance>

<https://www.lcfn.info/ovahimba>

Day 2: Opuwo to Van Zyl campsite. Visit to the Cultural Centre 'Scents of Namibia'

<http://scentsofnamibia.com/visitors-centre/>.

Day 3: Van Zyl campsite to Van Zyl Pass to Marienfluss to River Kunene. Coming across the exotic semi-nomadic Himba people and the amazing desert-adapted wildlife in the vast dramatic Martian wilderness landscape of red sands, dry pans and the mysterious fairy circles of Marienfluss (no, you are not going to Mars, but quite close 😊)

<http://www.nacso.org.na/sites/default/files/Brochure%20Marienfluss%20FPis.pdf>

Day 4: River Kunene to Marienfluss to Hartmann's Valley. Bush camping in the most remote wilderness of Namibia with landscapes out of this world, a photographers' heaven!

Day 5: Hartmann's Valley to Green Drum to Orange Drum to Blue Drum to Red Drum to House on the Hill / Etambura. Cultural visit to Himba village, including a respectful interaction with the Himba people and learn about their centuries old traditional way of life.

Day 6: House on the Hill / Etambura to Orupembe to Puros. Click below to read about Puros.

<http://www.nacso.org.na/sites/default/files/Brochure%20Puros%20FPis.pdf>

Day 7: Puros to Giribis Plains to Sesfontein to Palmwag to Twyfelfontein – a UNESCO World Heritage Site in Damaraland, with ancient rock-art engravings by Khoi-San tribes, Damara Living Museum, Burnt Mountain, Organ Pipes, Petrified Forest and desert-adapted elephants.

<https://namibiatourism.com.na/blog/Twyfelfontein-Rocks>

<https://www.lcfn.info/damara>

Day 8: Twyfelfontein to Windhoek.

Option: This tour can also be combined with Damaraland and Etosha tours.

➤ All the tours can be further customized to tailor-made tours to match your interests, time and budget.

Tour 2: (8 days, Guided Self-Drive)

Itinerary: Starts at Windhoek to Kaokoland, and ends at Windhoek)

Day 1: Windhoek to Otjiwarongo to Opuwo. Click below to read about Opuwo and Himbas:

<https://namibiatourism.com.na/blog/opuwo-and-the-himbas-a-metaphor-for-balance>

<https://www.lcfn.info/ovahimba>

Day 2: Opuwo to Van Zyl campsite. Visit to the Cultural Centre 'Scents of Namibia'
<http://scentsofnamibia.com/visitors-centre/>

Day 3: Van Zyl campsite to Van Zyl Pass to Marienfluss to River Kunene. Coming across the exotic semi-nomadic Himba people and the amazing desert-adapted wildlife in the vast dramatic Martian wilderness landscape of red sands, dry pans and the mysterious fairy circles of Marienfluss (no, you are not going to Mars, but quite close 😊)

<http://www.nacso.org.na/sites/default/files/Brochure%20Marienfluss%20FPis.pdf>

Day 4: River Kunene to Marienfluss to Hartmann's Valley. Bush camping in the most remote wilderness of Namibia with landscapes out of this world, a photographers' heaven!

Day 5: Hartmann's Valley to Green Drum to D3707 to Bear Rock to bush camping in the middle of nowhere 😬 (between Khumib River and Hoarusib River). While passing through the spectacular landscapes of Kaokoland's wilderness, we come across the amazing desert-adapted wildlife comprising springboks, ostriches, oryx, brown hyenas, giraffes, elephants, black rhinos and lions.

Day 6: Bush camp to Hoarusib River to Hoanib River to Mudorib campsite / Elephant Song campsite.

Day 7: Mudorib campsite to Giribis Plains / Elephant Song campsite to Sesfontein to Palmwag to Twyfelfontein - a UNESCO World Heritage Site in Damaraland, with ancient rock-art engravings by Khoi-San tribes, Damara Living Museum, Burnt Mountain, Organ Pipes, Petrified Forest and desert-adapted elephants.

<https://namibiatourism.com.na/blog/Twyfelfontein-Rocks>

<https://www.lcfn.info/damara>

Day 8: Twyfelfontein to Windhoek

Option: This tour can also be combined with Damaraland and Etosha tours.

➤ All the tours can be further customized to tailor-made tours to match your interests, time and budget.